

Zootown Arts Community Center SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Zootown Arts Community Center believes that art is for everyone. If you or your child is someone who would love to come explore art but cost is an issue, please complete the application below and hopefully we can help! As funding allows, the ZACC can offer the following scholarship opportunities:

Full scholarships to those that live in households earning 185% or less of the federal poverty rate

Partial scholarships to those that live in households earning more than 185% but have limited resources and/or special needs.

INCOME INFORMATION

The ZACC can offer scholarships to those people/families that are 185% of poverty rate in Missoula County. Please look at this rate schedule. We do not request verification, but self-certification is required.

185% of the federal poverty rate is as follows:

- 1 in household earning less than $20,036
- 2 in household earning less than $26,955
- 3 in household earning less than $33,874
- 4 in household earning less than $40,793
- 5 in household earning less than $47,712
- 6 in household earning less than $54,631
- 7 in household earning less than $61,550
- 8 in household earning less than $68,469

What is your total household income before taxes? $ _____

How many people are in your family? _____

What portion of the class fee could you pay at this time as a copay? $ _____

We can offer full scholarships but prefer to stretch our scholarships to benefit as many Missoula families and artists as possible.

Any additional notes you'd like to make regarding this information?

Our scholarship program is funded in part by the Dennis & Phyllis Washington Foundation and the Gallagher Foundation of Western Montana. The ZACC and past/present scholarship recipients are so very thankful.
